

Earth's Ten Commandments

- You will love and honour Earth for it blesses your life and governs your survival.
- You will keep each day sacred to the Earth and celebrate the turning of its seasons.
- You will not hold yourself above other living things nor drive them to extinction.
- You will give thanks for your food to the creatures and plants that nourish you.
- You will limit your offspring for multitudes of people are a burden to the Earth.
- You will not hide from yourself or others the consequences of your actions upon the Earth.
- You will not kill nor waste Earth's riches upon weapons of war.
- You will not steal from future generations by impoverishing or poisoning the Earth.
- You will not pursue profit at the Earth's expense but strive to restore its damaged majesty.
- You will consume material goods in moderation so all may share earth's bounty.

Respect all life
Reject violence
Share with others

Listen to understand
Preserve the planet
Rediscover solidarity

Goal 7 Ensure environmental sustainability

Creator, when you told us to enjoy your creation, you didn't mean for us to plunder it into oblivion.

As with the mana given in the wilderness, we commit to take no more than we really need: you give us our daily bread.

Read about the Millennium Project:

www.unmillenniumproject.org/goals/index.htm